Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of the splendid and time-honored remedy, Mother's Friend, that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming, and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

Mother's Friend relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliable those fibers and muscles which nature is expanding, and soothes the inflammation of breasts, glands and other soreness. The tendency to nervousness and to morning sickness or nausea is counteracted.

By regular use during the period the muscles expand with ease when baby is born, tension is reduced and the pain and danger at the crisis is naturally less.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, is absolutely safe and wonderfully effective. It not only allays distress in advance, but assures a speedy recovery for the mother.

This splendid preparation may be had at every drug store, and is one of the greatest blessings ever discovered for expectant mothers. Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., G-174 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their "Mother's Friend Book," so valuable to expectant mothers, and in the meantime do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort. ## ENEMY PUSHING FURTHER SOUTH

Of Fere-en-Tardenois, Already Captured, Toward Chateau Thierry and Dormans.

(Associated Press.)
Paris, May 31.—The allied left flank on the Aisne front has been forced back by violent German attacks in the region of the Ailette river, it is announced officially. Near Soissons and further south German attacks broke down, the French maintaining their positions.

In the center the Germans made a slight advance north of the Marne. Further east and also northwest and north of Rheims all the German efforts were vain. The French by a counter-attack won back the town of Thillois, west of Rheims.

French Holding Along Road
Withdrawing before the German onslaught in the region of the Ailette the French fell back on positions north of Bierancourt (nine miles southeast of Novion) and Espagny, (seven miles northwest of Soissons). The French are holding their positions along the road between Soissons and Chateau Thierry, as well as in the western outskirts of Soissons.

Paris, May 31.—(5:45 a.m.)—The Germans continued to push forward south of Fere-en-Tardenois, according to the latest advices reaching Paris, but neither Chateau Thierry nor Dormans have yet fallen into their hands. There is reason to hope that Chateau Thierry, the population of which has fled, will be saved.

(Chateau Thierry is ten miles south of Fere-en-Tardenois, while Dormans is six miles south of Vezilly. Both towns are on the River Marne.)
Another reason for confidence is the arrival of allied reserves. Besides the mention in the official report of the beginning of intervention by these reserves, the Echo de Paris, in a dispatch from the front filed at 2 a.m., today reports that the reserves are arriving on the battle ground with artillery and auxiliary services. Their entrance into action, the message reports is being effected methodically without any display of nervousness. Gen. Foch and Gen. Petain are working intimately together, it adds.

In commenting on the intervention of fresh forces L'Homme Libre says it does not appear doubtful that the enemy has reached the extreme point of his advance and that he will encounter the allied reserves, carefully withheld until a favorable moment for a counter attack.

The Havas correspondent at the front, who is endeavoring to reflect the official view, thus summarizes the situation:

An Analogous Situation.
"The rapid advance of the enemy is due to temporary numerical inferiority of the allies, which has completely changed the aspect of the struggle. It is necessary to go back to the beginning of the war for an analogous situation. This is a war of movement, where two armies maneuver under the open sky."

"Under these conditions the momentary advance of an army and the capture of a town may mean nothing. The problem is more vast. For its own reasons our command did not find it advisable to give battle either on the Somme or in Flanders after the March offensive. It confined itself to stopping the enemy."

"Should we accept battle this time as we formerly accepted it on the Marne? That is the secret of our command. The Germans have no illusions as to the value of the success they have gained. They know we have several million picked troops forming in maneuvering masses which they will have to encounter somewhere."

Battle May Be Decisive.
"If the enemy had the choice of ground for the offensive we have the much more important choice of the field of battle on which Germany's destiny will be decided."

"It will be seen, therefore, that there is no ground for alarm. We probably are witnessing the preliminaries to a great battle which both sides wish to be decisive. Consequently it is comprehensible that our commanders do not act hurriedly, but strictly in accordance with plans agreed upon."

F. T. CARTER MAY MAKE RACE FOR STATE SENATE

It is understood from those high in the party councils that the republicans will not be as charitable in the race for the legislature as they were in some of the county offices where they endorsed democratic nominees. It is stated that F. T. Carter, head of the Central Labor union, will oppose the democratic nominee for state senator. Mr. Carter was mentioned for several county offices, but he refused to make the race. However, it is stated now, if given the nomination for state senator, he will accept.

It was also learned that the republicans would put out a full ticket for the lower house, opposing any one the democrats nominate. It is understood Andy Ware, who was mentioned for sheriff, is likely to become a candidate. However, no other names have been mentioned but republican party leaders say they will find some available men who will consent to make the race.

JAMES H. ANDERSON MAY RUN FOR SENATE

A petition is being circulated in the interest of J. H. Anderson in an effort to have him enter the race for the republican nomination for the United States senate against the democratic nominee. It is stated Mr. Anderson will qualify before the proper committee in a few days. Mr. Anderson is one of the best known lawyers at the local bar and is the present referee in bankruptcy. He has furnished valuable service to the republican party and his friends claim that he is justly entitled to the honor of the nomination of his party for United States senator. Mr. Anderson was not in his office Friday and could not be interviewed regarding his proposed candidacy.

HOW FOCH WILL WIN THE VICTORY

In the whole history of war, as one journal remarks, one can find no individual responsibility equal to that of Gen. Ferdinand Foch, "called to the head of six millions of soldiers to achieve victory for human liberty and civilization." Four great nations have unreservedly entrusted their armies and their destinies to this French general. More than six millions, in fact, may be under his supreme command, for the Italian Premier says that the Allied conference "recognized a united front from the North Sea to the Adriatic as an effective reality"; and some estimates place the Allied troops in France and Belgium alone at not less than six million. What, ask our military critics of the press, is the plan of this leader in whose genius the Allied nations have such faith?

It is to answer this question that the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for June 1st has been prepared. The article includes the opinions of the war experts and presents all available information.

"The Digest" Prevents a One-Angled View

These are anxious days in Flanders and Northern France and those of us who look only at the heroic struggle the British are making against heavy odds may be perhaps the least bit fearful of the outcome. But this is only a partial view, after all. What we should do is to survey the Allied lines as a whole—French, American, Italian, and English—and then we realize at once that the pressure at the North is only a part of the great struggle, and that Southward hope and help are still to be had in generous measure. So, too, the reading of but one morning or evening paper gives one a merely partial view of this great world-crisis. What is needed is a reasoned analysis of the whole situation, drawn from all possible sources, and quoting the views of many periodicals. This you have every week in THE LITERARY DIGEST, the greatest of news-magazines. Buy a copy and be convinced.
